Garry saddles up for charity bike ride in memory of six friends

FROM Barking to Devon – a security guard is to cycle more than 400 miles in memory of his friends.

Garry Culling, 26, from Dagenham, is to raise money for pancreatic cancer charity, Operation Henry, after six of his friends lost their battle with the disease over 10 years.

He is looking to raise £2,000 over two years for the charity with the ride taking place on Saturday, July 11.

Garry said: "I could not tell you how much I have raised over the years, it's in the thousands I can tell you that for sure. I've done fun fairs and cycles before and I'm also planning to go bungee jumping and skydiving in the near future.

"I love cycling. I'm always travelling long distance. This will be the furthest I've cycled to date."

The ride from Barking station is 213 miles to Devon, with an extra 213 back.

Garry picked Devon as it is home to Operation Henry's headquarters.

WE SALUTE THEM ALL

By Matthew Stanton

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

ARMED Forces Day parades are taking place across east London this weekend.

Residents are set to pay tribute to soldiers, both living and dead, on Sunday.

Cadets, soldiers and veterans will form part of parade that will leave Redbridge Town Hall at 10.45am before walking through High Road, Ilford.

An evacuation bus, brass bands and 1940s-style girl singing group will be among the attractions at Valence House, in Dagenham.

There will also be armoured vehicles, veterans from the Royal British Legion and representatives from Help for Heroes.

In Waltham Forest, a parade will walk from the Chingford Plains car park at 11am before marching to The Green.

The event includes stalls, kids rides, face painting and a beer tent. Ron Bachelor, from Ilford, was just 19 in 1951 when he not only battled the enemy, but below-freezing conditions, to serve his country in the Korean War.

The 82-year-old said: "There was a big problem was frostbite during the first winter of the war as we weren't ready for how cold it was going to get."

"Fortunately I was posted over there in the second winter in 1951 but the weather was bitterly cold."

"Armed Forces Day makes me feel proud of my past experience."

"I think it is very important that we have days like that to remember those that have fallen in conflict. I will be there on the day."

Councillor Darren Rodwell, leader of Barking and Dagenham Council, said: "We are proud to celebrate and commemorate Armed Forces Day."

"Our forces do a magnificent job protecting our freedom – they are the pride of the nation."

Redbridge, Waltham Forest and Barking and Dagenham councils all signed up to the Armed Forces Covenant in 2012.

The covenant enables current and former armed forces personnel to access to a range of benefits and support, including priority for council housing to those personnel who are about to leave or have left the forces in the past five years.

Parades have been organised in each borough annually.

In Redbridge, the parade will be led by the Band of the Scots Guards and will then be inspected by the Redbridge Mayor, Councillor Barbara White.

Cllr White said: "The extraordinary work that our armed forces do now and have done in the past cannot be overestimated."

"We are proud to celebrate Armed Forces Day and we hope that residents of Redbridge will join with us for this important event."

Win show tickets and meal for two

NEW musical Dreamboats and Miniskirts is taking the country by storm and we have five pairs of tickets to give away – and a meal for two.

The sequel to Dreamboats and Petticoats is at the Cliffs Pavilion, Southend, from Monday to Saturday, July 6-11, and we have a three-course pre-show meal to give away, as well as a pair of tickets for one lucky winner on the opening night.

We also have four pairs of tickets for runners-up to see the show on the same evening.

It's 1963, and the world is changing. Bobby and Laura's single Dreamboats and Petticoats has not taken off. Norman and Sue have settled down to non-marital bliss and a baby, while Ray and Donna seem blissfully happy.

The advent of the Beatles and the Merseyside sound is inspirational, but will it inspire Bobby and Laura to have one more shot at stardom, Norman to "get off the drains" and find that singing voice he has longed for, and Ray to realise his ambition and manage a top pop act?

All will be revealed in this witty and charming production, packed with many hits from the period, including A Picture of You, All I Have To Do Is Dream, Do You Love Me, It's In His Kiss, It's My Party, Hippy Hippy Shake and many more.

For your chance to win answer this question.

Q: In which year is Dreamboats and Miniskirts set?*A: 1963*B: 1973*C: 1983

To enter the competition telephone your answer – A, B or C – to (0901 307 1660) along with your name, address, telephone number and email.

Alternatively text YADREAM (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333. Calls cost 51p from a BT landline. Calls from other networks may vary and from mobiles will cost considerably more.

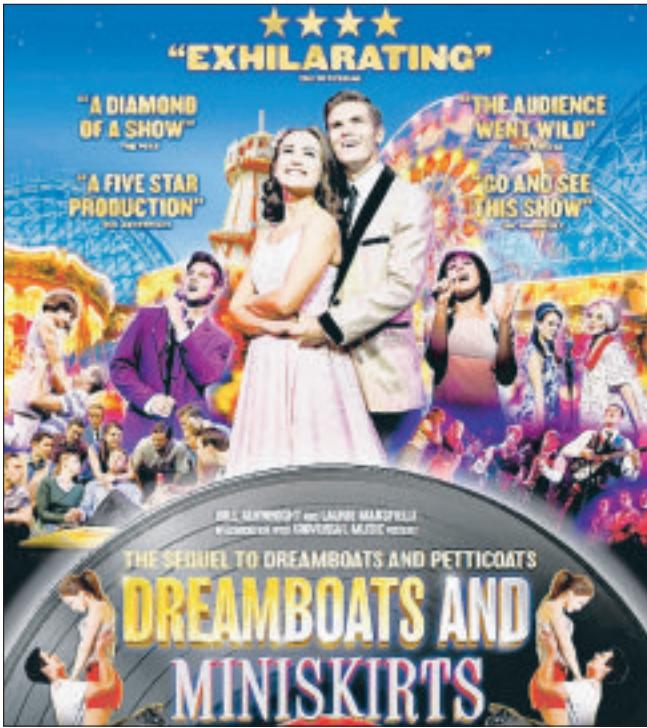

Texts cost 50p plus standard network rates.

If you do not wish to receive details on other products or services, text EXIT at the end of your message.

Lines close on Monday, June 29. Entries received after the closing date will not be counted but may still be charged.

Service Provider: JMedia UK Limited, SW4 7BX. Tel: 020 7720 7130.

T&Cs: The winner will receive a pair of tickets for the opening performance at the Cliffs Pavilion at 8pm on Monday, July 6, 2015, as well as a pre-show three-course meal for two, including soft drinks only, for the 6pm sitting in the Pavilion Restaurant on the same evening. Runner-up tickets for Dreamboats and Miniskirts are also valid for the evening of July 6.

Dropped TV led police straight to church raider

A BURGLAR has been sentenced after stealing a quantity of electrical items from a church in Dagenham.

Steven Brown, of Broad Street, Dagenham was sentenced on Wednesday, June 17, to 15 months imprisonment, suspended for 24 months, for burglary.

The 34-year-old pleaded guilty to burglary at Snaresbrook Crown Court on Wednesday, April 22.

The court heard how Brown committed the burglary on Wednesday, September 17, last year between 2am and 4am at New Fire Church Centre, in Stamford Road.

Brown forced entry through a window and stole a quantity of electrical equipment, which included televisions and computers.

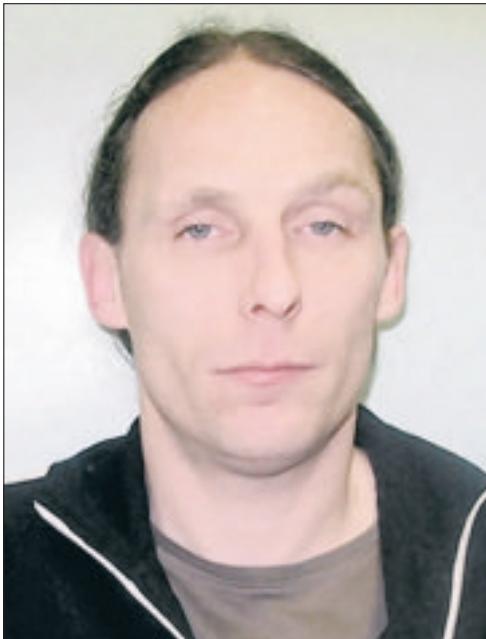

During the burglary Brown dropped a television in the external yard of the church.

Police were able to retrieve Brown's fingerprints from the discarded television and forensically link him to the burglary.

Detective Constable Anwar Hussain, from Barking and Dagenham's CID, said: "This conviction highlights the work we will undertake to protect properties from burglars."

"We will continue to target those responsible for burglary across the borough."

The property stolen was valued at around £5,000 and £1,500 worth of damage was caused.

Knife haul in fight at big party

THREE large knives have been recovered following a fight at private house party.

Police in Barking and Dagenham were called to Oxlow Lane, Dagenham, at around 11pm on Saturday, June 20, following reports of a large fight in the street.

Between 200 and 300 people were invited to the party.

Officers recovered the knives, scissors and a quantity of cannabis.

Inspector Jason O'Donohue, from Barking and Dagenham, said: "Three large knives were recovered by my officers today as they worked to disperse a very large and unpredictable crowd following a private house party. By getting these knives off the street when they did, my officers have helped save lives and prevent another needless tragedy."

There were no reported injuries and police cleared the party.

Singers waiting to hear if they have The Voice

HOPEFUL:
Aimee BattHOPEFUL:
Fox Atkins

LOUGHTON students have reached the final non-televised audition of a reality show.

Fox Atkins, 17, and Aimee Batt, 16, both from Woodford Green, face an anxious wait before their performance which could land them a place in front of the four coaches in The Voice 2016.

The Loughton Music Academy students have already been put through other stages of the show.

Cliff Cooper, director at Loughton Music Academy, said: "I am so excited for Fox and Aimee. They both have beautiful voices and I have had the pleasure of watching them hone their skills at our concerts and recitals."

Fox has been a student at Loughton Music Academy for the last eight years while Aimee has studying for two-and-a-half years.

£500,000 clawed back in tax fraud

MORE than 1,000 people were claiming a council discount unlawfully in the borough.

Waltham Forest Council's revenues team looked at 32,900 records of single person discounts and checked electoral rolls and discovered fraudulent claims.

The investigation found that 1,010 households were receiving the benefit illegally.

The changes will see the council collect an additional £568,000 in council tax.

Quality charter for house developers

DEVELOPERS will have to abide to a council charter before building new homes.

Senior councillors at Waltham Forest Council, which aims to provide 12,000 new homes in the borough by 2020, approved a "design charter" on Tuesday night.

The document, which will need approval from all councillors, lists the 10 key principles housing developers should stick to when constructing new properties. These include saving energy, providing adequate parking, constructing garden and public spaces, building high quality homes and creating people-friendly streets.

The charter has already been endorsed by 18 firms, including Walthamstow Stadium developer, London and Quadrant.

AN APPRENTICE hairdresser from Upminster has won an award for creating a 'New York' themed hairstyle.

Ellie Sibley, 17, created the hairstyle along with make-up and clothing at the Uppercut Hair Group's annual Soiree.

The event took place at Uppercut Hairdressing Academy in Market Place, Romford and saw 16 apprentices create their own styles based on different locations from around the world.

Ellie, who is an ex-pupil at Gaynes School in Upminster, has been an apprentice at Uppercut's salon in Cranbrook Road, Gants Hill for a year.

She said: "I'm so happy to have won, I would love to go to 'New York' and hope to fulfil this dream one day."

"It took me over 6 ½ hours to complete the hair, make-up and outfit with my version of the famous Statue of Liberty and the Big Apple."

Ellie added that she was thrilled to lift the winning trophy at the end of the evening last Friday.

TB sufferer's lasting legacy for children

Fred spent five years in hospital and wanted to ensure others had specialised nursing care too

By Matthew Stanton

news@chingfordtimes.co.uk

MORE than £170,000 has been left to a hospice by a pensioner who was left physically disabled a child from tuberculosis.

Haven House Children's Hospice, in Woodford Green, was given the donation from Fredrick Carter, 93, of Scots Road, Leyton, who lived in the borough most of his life.

The funds will be used to provide specialist nursing care for local-limited and life-threatened children.

The cheque was presented to the charity by his surviving nieces, Linda Wyman and Helen Lee last week.

Linda said: "My uncle decided some time ago that he wanted to leave a legacy to provide specialist nursing for children."

"As a child, he spent five years in hospital being treated for tuberculosis and he was very keen that other children could access the same specialist care that he had."

Fredrick was left physically disabled by his illness but friends and family say that he led a busy and fulfilling life.

He had a successful business as a watch and clock repairer and was a keen photographer and a well-respected member of The West Essex Model Flying Club.

He was also known for being highly principled.

When his house in Fillebrook Road, Leytonstone, was compulsory purchased in 1996 to make way for the M11 link road, he was determined not to move and his was the last house standing, when all round him had been demolished.

Mike Palfreman, chief executive of Haven House, said: "Legacy donations are vital to any charity to secure its long-term future and we are honoured that Mr Carter decided to choose Haven House as his beneficiary."

"It's particularly touching that Fredrick wanted to help other children with life-limiting illnesses, in the same way that he had been helped as a child."

CRIME in Loughton at night has dropped by 24 per cent, according to police.

Essex Police claim the number of offences classed as night-time economy crime recorded in the year ending March 31 this dropped following partnership work with Epping Forest District Council.

The figures also show a fall in neighbouring Epping Forest by 18 per cent.

The crimes include drugs, assault, theft and criminal damage.

CHANGES to libraries in Redbridge is saving £2million a year, council chiefs claim.

Bosses at Redbridge Council report that through a catalogue of changes and by embracing technology, the borough's libraries have reduced expenditure.

The council stressed demand for library services remains higher, with 1.5million people visiting council run sites a year.

A PERFORMING arts teacher born with a genetic disease has been awarded for her work with wheelchair bound youngsters.

Jacqui Adeniji-Williams, from Barking, was presented with the "Inspirational Role Model" award by charity, Whizz Kidz, at Hampton Court Palace.

The 24-year-old has been supported by the charity for 16 years and has gone on to share her experiences with other people aged between seven and 23.

Jacqui was born with spinal muscular atrophy and sickle cell anaemia.

MAJOR developers are to be given the chance to present plans to councillors before submitting an application.

Waltham Forest Council has agreed to allow firms who propose to build over 100 houses or on 1,000 square metres of commercial space the chance to attend a pre-application meeting.

The developer will get 15 minutes to deliver a presentation about their ideas with councillors getting the same length of time to question them. The council believes the "necessary" change will help with "probity and transparency".

AN INDEPENDENT panel is to be created to deal with council officer dismissals.

Waltham Forest Council is looking to create an advisory committee of the council when an employee is being considered for disciplinary action or the sack.

A rare breed indeed

MORE than 120 years ago, Hadleigh Farm was bought by The Salvation Army as part of its founder's plan to rescue the destitute from the squalor of London.

Since then it has evolved from a colony that once gave desperately poor people a chance in life to somewhere that is now doing its bit for a variety of rare breeds of animals.

Back in 1891 William Booth, a Christian preacher, bought the 700-acre farm as part of The Salvation Army's plan to help 10 per cent of England's poorest people into homes and jobs. In London alone in the 1800s there were nearly a million people in desperate need due to a huge growth in population. By 1890 there were four times as many people in England than in 1800, leaving many people out of work as there were not enough jobs to go around.

Some men were offered the chance to go to the farm colony at Hadleigh, where they were trained and helped to find jobs, and some of them went on to live and work in other countries.

Today, Hadleigh Farm is continuing its work for the benefit of the community as it is run as an educational working farm that welcomes visitors to its rare breeds centre and tea room.

The farm is a long standing favourite with people of all ages.

Not only is it home to a range of different animals, but it also offers a cheap afternoon out. With entrance just £3 for adults and £2.50 for children, with youngsters under 36 months getting in for free, it offers great value for money, even more so when you can pick up bags of food to feed the animals for just 40p each or three for a £1.

Among the residents are Mell, Snowball, Toffee, Raindrop, Raisin, Summer, Shelley, Surprise and Kevin the golden Guernsey goats, as well as their offspring, Bagot goats, greyface Dartmoor sheep, Leicester longwool sheep, and Indian runner ducks, which were introduced in this country from Malaya. You can also meet Dylan the donkey, Cookie the Exmoor pony – Britain's oldest breed of native pony – and as well as chick-

School raiders locked up

Theft of equipment worth half a million pounds from 20 premises across three counties

By Matthew Stanton

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

SIX men have been sentenced following a conspiracy to commit 20 school burglaries over a year.

The men were sentenced at Snaresbrook Crown Court on June 19, after admitting planning to commit non-residential burglaries between May 2013 and May 2014.

Twenty schools were targeted in London, Essex and Hertfordshire areas.

Some schools were repeatedly burgled across Waltham Forest, resulting in costs of nearly half a million pounds for damages and losses.

The men were arrested and charged by detectives from Waltham Forest following an intelligence-led operation under Operation Founder. The operation was created to tackle the significant rise in burglaries at schools the borough.

Superintendent Phillip Langworthy, from Waltham Forest borough, said: "The proactive operation used several police tactics leading to the handler being identified and arrested. My team then worked hard to identify those committing the burglaries."

"These sentences will ensure these men will not be setting foot in Waltham Forest or any other area for some time."

"I would really like to emphasise to residents, schools and businesses that property marking is essential to identify property and return it to the rightful owner."

"We recovered property that took painstaking enquiries to identify and something as simple as an address in a UV pen easily identified some owners." The court heard how on May 7, 2014, a warrant was executed at an address in Edison Close, Walthamstow, where computer equipment and £8,000 in cash was seized.

A further warrant was executed at a business address in High Road, Leytonstone.

Over half of the equipment seized was found to have been stolen from schools in Waltham Forest.

The property seized was identified as equipment stolen during 20 separate burglaries, according to police.

The gang members were:

Ryan Greenhow, 20, of Mulberry Court, Langthorne Road, Leytonstone. He was found guilty of conspiracy to commit burglary and was sentenced to two years and nine months.

Richard Baker, 32, of Springhills, Harlow pleaded guilty to conspiracy to commit burglary on and was sentenced to five years and three months.

Imran Yousef, 32, of Edison Close, Walthamstow, was found guilty of conspiracy to commit burglary and was sentenced to six years.

Danny Simpson, 32, of Silver Birch

Avenue, Chingford, was sentenced to four years and 10 months after pleading guilty to conspiracy to commit burglary.

Jason Hardcastle, 29, of Withy Meadow, Chingford, who was jailed a day before his birthday, was found guilty of conspiracy to commit burglary and was sentenced to three years and eight months.

Alax Alabo, 31, of Larkshall Road, Chingford, was found guilty of conspiracy to commit burglary and was sentenced to five years.

£40,000 for council tenants to buy home

A COUNCIL scheme could see 40 tenants who qualify to buy their council homes receive £40,000 each to assist in purchasing a property.

Barking and Dagenham Council's cabinet approved a proposed cash incentive scheme, which will be first aimed at residents living on estates listed, including Barking's Gascoigne Estate.

The scheme is known as the Estate Renewal Decant Assistance Scheme.

The council stressed that people on the estates, identified by charities as being some of the poorest in London, would be required to provide proof that they can afford to purchase a property.

According to estate agents, Right Move, flats sold in the borough for an average price of £161,162, while semi-detached properties fetched £264,791. Barking and Dagenham has overall average house price of £222,375.

Councillor Saima Ashraf (Lab, Gascoigne), Barking and

Dagenham Council's cabinet member for housing, claims the move will allow people to find an "affordable" home.

She said: "If these plans are given the go-ahead we will be giving hope to people who could only dream of buying their own homes."

"It also means we will be able to free up around 40 places on the housing waiting list and give more local families a home."

The £40,000 will not be paid directly to the tenants who qualify but through their solicitors at the time when they complete the purchase of a property.

If the new scheme is agreed, it will be funded by the Government by £1.2m and the council by another £400,000.

The scheme will not be rolled out if Barking and Dagenham's full council rejects the plan.

In the last four years the council has agreed plans to build 3,000 homes in the borough – with another 35,000 set to be built over the next 15 years.

HOPEFUL: Cllr Saima Ashraf

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', ('T') etc. in the advertisement.
4. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
  - (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
  - (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
  - (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.
8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
  - (1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
  - (2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in "trade" advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debts.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you.

The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

VACANCY

Yellow Advertiser Telesales Executive

The Yellow Advertiser series of newspapers, part of Tindle Newspapers has an opportunity for a bright, ambitious and enthusiastic individual to join the busy and expanding advertising sales department.

The brief is to grow and further develop the portfolio of our successful East London and Essex titles with particular emphasis on the local Trade Service markets. The successful candidate must be able to demonstrate customer focused sales ability, based on providing advertising solutions that make a real difference to clients and their businesses. Experience is preferred, but we would also like to hear from you if you feel you have the skills and aptitude to be successful in the position.

You would need to clearly be able to demonstrate an ability to react positively to customers needs and have excellent communication skills. You must also possess the drive and determination to succeed within a highly competitive market. We offer a highly competitive salary, lucrative bonus scheme, company car and other benefits.

If you feel you have what it takes in a challenging but rewarding industry and are good enough to make a difference, please apply with a covering letter and CV to: Vicky Tims, Yellow Advertiser, Acorn House, Great Oaks, Basildon, Essex SS14 1AH.
Email: vickytims@yellowad.co.uk

All applications will be treated in the strictest confidence

Remuneration package

- Basic Salary plus bonus scheme • 5 weeks holiday per year

If applicant has not had a response within 10 days of their application they will not be contacted regarding the interview stage. Previous applicants need not apply.

Hammers set for opening day derby

Football

Round-up

by Brian Jeeves

WEST Ham United open their Barclays Premier League programme with a daunting trip to face north London rivals Arsenal.

Slaven Bilic's men visit the Emirates Stadium on Saturday August 8 (3pm), before facing Leicester City at Upton Park seven days later as the Hammers begin the countdown to leaving their home for the past 104 years.

Other dates for fans' diaries include the visit of Chelsea on Saturday, October 24, Tottenham Hotspur, on Saturday, March 1, and Manchester United on Saturday, April 23, (all 3pm).

Saturday, May 7, is sure to be an emotional day for Hammers fans when the curtain finally comes down on what will always be their spiritual home, Swansea City provide the opposition.

West Ham complete their campaign with a trip to Stoke City on Saturday, May 15.

Southend United will make a 552-mile round trip to take on Fleetwood Town on the first day of the Sky Bet League season.

Blues fans head north on Saturday, August 8 (3pm), then Blues take on Walsall at Roots Hall on Saturday, August 15, to open their home campaign.

Southend fans have waited patiently for the return of the Essex derby matches with old rivals Colchester United. The pair face each other at the Weston homes Community Stadium on Boxing Day, Saturday, December 26, while the return fixture at Roots Hall is on Saturday, February 6 (3pm).

Southend finish their season how they started it, with a long trip. This time Bury provide the opposition on Sunday, May 8 (12.30pm).

In Sky Bet League Two, Leyton Orient open with a couple of London derby matches.

Barnet are the opposition on Saturday, August 8 (3pm), while the O's take the short trip to Dagenham & Redbridge a week later.

Festive action sees Orient take on Portsmouth at Brisbane Road on Boxing Day (3pm), while the club hope to be celebrating a return to League One when they travel to face Yeovil Town on Saturday, May 7 (3pm).

Dagenham & Redbridge also have an appetising opener. They travel to Portsmouth on Saturday, August 8 (3pm), and their Victoria Road will surely be running close to capacity for the derby with Leyton Orient on Saturday, August 15.

Daggers take on big spending Cambridge United on Boxing Day before concluding their season with a trip to promoted Bristol Rovers on Saturday, May 7 (3pm).

Our local Sky Bet Football League clubs were licking their lips after being handed a treble of mouth-watering ties with Championship opponents in the first round of the Capital One Cup.

Southend United face Brighton and Hove Albion at Roots Hall.

The pair previously met in the competition in 2006, when the Shrimpers snatched a 3-2 victory.

It was a campaign in which they went on to beat Leeds United and famously Manchester United, before narrowly losing to Tottenham Hotspur in a fifth round tie at White Hart Lane.

Dagenham & Redbridge also landed a plum tie, facing Charlton Athletic at the Valley.

The Daggers took Charlton to an FA Cup replay in 2001 before the south Londoners progressed, thanks to a Shaun Newton goal at Victoria Road.

Leyton Orient face a tricky trip to newly promoted MK Dons.

The O's will be looking for some sort of revenge after the Dons overwhelmed them by six goals to one at the tail end of last season.

These ties will take place in the week beginning August 10.

In other news, Southend United were delighted to announce that midfielder Will Atkinson has agreed a new two-year deal to remain at Roots Hall.

Atkinson joined the Blues from Bradford City in 2013 and has made 81 appearances.

Meanwhile Leyton Orient defender Elliot Onozusi has parted company with the club after his contract expired.

Onozusi, 26, has now joined League Two rivals Cambridge United.

Non-league round-up

Blues top Rovers pre-season bill

by Brian Jeeves

RYMAN League Division One North outfit Great Wakering Rovers have announced a number of eye-catching pre-season friendly matches, with Sky Bet League One newcomers Southend United topping the Burroughs Park billing.

Great Wakering enjoyed their record home attendance of 1,150 when the Shrimpers visited in 2006, and the club are hopeful of a similar turnout this time.

Rovers chairman Tony Butcher told Yellow Sport: "The Southend game is huge for us as it creates a great source of revenue and an opportunity for our boys to gauge themselves against professionals. It's also great for the village and community within. We are always very grateful to Southend who have always used us as their first pre-season game back and we hope that continues for many more years to come."

Mr Butcher added: "Last season we had many Southend fans attend our home games if they were unable to go to an away game or they had no game, and we hope that may more can make the journey to Burroughs Park more often."

The village outfit have also publicised home fixtures with Concord Rangers and Canvey Island, the full programme as follows: Saturday, July 11, Grays Athletic away (3pm); Wednesday, July 15, Southend United home (7.45pm); Saturday, July 18, Three Bridges away (3pm); Tuesday, July 21, Concord Rangers home (7.45pm); Saturday, July 25, Hadley FC away (3pm); Tuesday, July 28, Canvey Island home (7.45pm); Saturday, August 1, Sittingbourne FC away (1pm) and Tuesday, August 4, Bowers & Pitsea away (7.45pm).

National Conference Premier club Braintree Town have snapped up defender Matthew Fry from Concord Rangers.

Fry, who spent 11 years with West Ham United, played in the Football League with Gillingham, Charlton Athletic and Bradford City before joining the Beach Boys three seasons ago. He turned down a number of other offers to reunite with former Rangers manager Danny Cowley who is now in the hot seat at Cressing Road.

Canvey Island have boosted their forward line with the signing of Martin Tuohy from AFC Hornchurch.

The club have also announced a freeze on season ticket prices for the 2015/16 season.

Prices for the Gulls first team matches will remain at £10 for adults, £6 for concessions (over-60s and students with valid ID) and £1 for supporters aged 16 and under. While adult season tickets remain at £175 with concessions seeing a small £5 increase to £100.

The Park Lane outfit stated that season tickets operate from the first home league game of the season and can be used for all Ryman Premier League home games as well as reserve fixtures. Season tickets are not valid for first team cup competitions, including the FA Cup, FA Trophy, Essex Senior Cup, and Isthmian League Cup, and are also excluded from friendlies, play-off matches and FA Youth Cup ties.

Canvey have called on supporters to back a stadium tidy-up day. Gulls fans are invited to help the club with a number of jobs including weeding, sweeping, washing down and painting, to ensure the ground looks in top condition prior to high-profile matches with West Ham United and Southend United.

Tidy-up day will commence at 9am on Saturday, June 27, with refreshments available free of charge.

Ambitious junior club Southendian Manor have announced a date for their annual awards and presentation day in conjunction with a community fun day.

The event takes place at Playfootball, Southend, on Sunday June 28 starting at 10am, with a host of football activities for all the family.

More information can be found at www.Southendianmanor.co.uk.

Aveley have made amendments to their club tournament following the withdrawal of Grays Athletic.

The Millers will now host Faversham Town and Clapton, with three matches taking place on Saturday, July 25, with admission prices £5 for Adults and £2 for children. The full itinerary is: Aveley v Clapton FC (1pm); Clapton v Faversham Town (2.30pm) and Faversham Town v Aveley (4pm).

Havering promoted with a fixture to spare

Athletics

HAVERING'S high-flying young athletes have sealed promotion to the National Premier Division of the Youth Development League with one fixture to spare after a third straight victory at Basildon on Sunday.

Such is their dominance in the division that they only need to turn up at Chelmsford on July 18 to confirm their top position.

New Under 13 Boys sprint sensation Kareem Jerome goes from strength to strength with a hat-trick of victories in the 100m, 200m and shot, and making the 100m club record his own, after equalising it seven days earlier. He is now ranked number two nationally for 100m and third for 200m.

Kareem combined with Victor Hughes, Ashton Thatcher-Gray and Peter Brinton-Quinn for a relay win. Hal Hutton won the B javelin, with Peter second in the A, and Victor second in both B sprints.

The Under 15 Girls showed great strength in depth, despite achieving no A string victories, although Molly Sweetman (1500m), Isobel McDonach (shot) and Rosie Brown (discus) all scored full points in their B string events.

English Schools-bound Jack Rice and Max Law provided wins for the Under 15 Boys, as Jack cruised home in the 1500m and Max won the javelin. Success Ariyibi (300m) and Joseph Hogan O'Neill (discus) took full points in their B string events. Second place A string points were won by Tobi Idowu (long jump) and Nathan Leach in his pole vault debut, while Ayden Jordan (shot) and Sam Mezoori (long jump) added B string runners up positions.

Grace Griffiths provided the only victory for the Under 13 Girls in the long jump with B event second places in the hurdles and high jump.

Alice Brown was a fine second on her 1200m debut.

It was another fine all-round team display with good points coming across all event groups that won the day against the strong hosts and Chelmsford, who are the closest challengers, but too far adrift now to challenge for the only promotion place.

■ The Southern League squad produced their best result this season with a second place finish at St Albans on Saturday, as monsoon-like conditions late on threatened to call a premature halt to the proceedings.

There were victories for Heidi Surman-Wells and Vicky Smith in both 1500m strings and Vicky added runners-up spots in both 800m and 3000m, and was third in the 'chase. Beth Siddons won the high jump and also took full points in the B long jump, as Zoe Young ensured full points in the A.

Both added second place points in the triple jump (Beth) and 100m B (Zoe). Beth James marked her transfer from Thurrock with B string triple jump victory and B 100m runners up points.

Kate Cowley scored well winning the B high jump and came second in the sprint hurdles, shot and javelin.

The men had a good turnout and some fine results, notching up six wins. Veteran Paul Grange gets better and better with a new PB in winning the 800m, adding second place in the 1500m and a new 400m PB. Rob Warner has also hit a fine vein of form winning the 2000m 'chase in a new best, as Martin Chester made it double victory in the B, and knocking more than 10 seconds off his 5000m best in second.

On the field John Adekoya won the triple jump and was second in the high jump, while Sam Harrison took A string javelin honours and second place points in shot, discus and hammer.

Stalwart Arron Bonning won the B hurdles and racked up points in the vault, triple jump, high jump, shot, javelin, while second places went to Karl Tucker (110m hurdles A), debutant Ayo Akingbehin (100m B), Michael Duncan (400m B), Paul Kavanagh (800m B), Jason Crispin (5000m B), Ed Johnson (long jump) and Ed Brinton Quinn (hammer B).

Matt Owers (400m hurdles and 4x400m relay), Richard Holland (long jump), Rian Branton (4x100m) and Matt Braybrook (4x400m) added points to the tally, as the squad finished runners-up to Belgrave with their best points total of the season.

■ Georgie Taylor and Michelle Hughes both returned with medals from a successful weekend for club athletes at the England Athletics U20 and U23 Championships at Bedford.

Georgie improved on her two-year-old personal best to win silver in the U20 Women's discus. Her third round throw of 48.84m was almost a two-metre improvement on her best and almost won gold as UK number one, Windsor's Amy Holder threw just 25cm further.

■ Lauren Deadman faced a daunting international field on her track debut for Great Britain in Cheboksary, Russia, on Saturday and did well to finish eighth in a tactical 3000m race.
